SCHOOL VISITS TO MEADOWVALE THEATRE!

Special offer! New student discounts for curriculum connected performances

The Meadowvale Theatre is pleased to offer new subsidized ticket rates exclusively for students in the Peel Region. Students can experience the magic of the arts on our world-class stage. Our new season has strong ties to the Ontario Curriculum and features professional shows filled with storytelling, magic, comedy and dance for all ages!

TICKETS NOW ON SALE!

Special group rates for educators: Bring up to 30 students to any school performance for only $250. Single tickets for students are $9 each. Book your class trip before October 1st, 2014 to receive special rates as seating is limited.

Curriculum Based Drama Workshop!

Share the world of the arts with your students at our "Where the Wild Things Are" drama workshop. Following the Meadowvale Theatre's theatrical presentation, students will have the opportunity to participate on stage in a complementary workshop designed to support and engage students through strong professional ties to the Ontario school curriculum.

About Where the Wild Things Are:

Where the Wild Things Are' immerses the audience in Max's make-believe world as they travel across the ocean, crash through the forest and become part of the wild rumpus as Max conquers his fears to become King of the Wild Things.

Performance of Where the Wild Things Are:

Tuesday, November 4, 2014

Performance at 10am, workshop at 11:15am.

$9 per student. Groups of up to 30 students plus two teachers $250.

Recommended for students aged 3 to 12 years old.

Book your class trip (performance and workshop) before October 1st, 2014 to receive these special rates as spaces are limited.
