

OAAP nominee is the newest recipient of the “Lifetime Volunteer Achievement Award”, by Volunteer MBC

The late Allan “Al” Ridley, an inaugural Older Adult Advisory Panel (OAAP) member and long-time leader of many older adult groups and clubs in Mississauga, was awarded the Volunteer MBC “Lifetime Volunteer Achievement Award” on April 12, 2016. Al’s family accepted the award that honoured his involvement and contribution to the community. He was nominated to the award by Mississauga’s OAAP.

Al’s accomplishments and volunteer roles include:

Member of City of Mississauga Older Adult Advisory Panel, 2014-2016,

President, Golden Ages Bowling Club, Streetsville (1996-2015)

President, Streetsville Seniors Club, (2008-2015). 7 years as President and Past President.

Co-founder of Mississauga Senior Council, Seniors advocacy group (2010 - 2016)

Senior Games Committee (2002- 2012):

Board Member of various volunteer Condo Boards in the City of Mississauga

Etobicoke Canucks Hockey League (1972-1985)

Parent Volunteer, Etobicoke Memorial Swim Club (1975-1980)

Youth Club (London, England) (1949 - 1952)

Family and Friends at 2016 Volunteer MBC Award Ceremony

Top (left to right): Lois Jordaan, Bernard Jordaan, Lorena Smith. Bottom (left to right) Denise Ridley, Alan Wicks, Michael Ridley