FREE Training Session for Board Members of Mississauga Sports Groups!

Volunteer MBC, in partnership with the City of Mississauga and the Mississauga Sports Council, are pleased to offer a FREE training session for Board members of Mississauga Sports Groups on the following topics:

- Risk Management – How policies and procedures support your organizations' practices.
- Fiscal Responsibility – The financial well-being of an organization rests on the shoulders of the board. Ensuring each board member is comfortable and knowledgeable reading budgets and financial reports is crucial.
- Board Governance – Parliamentary basics required for efficient and effective board meetings and decisions.
- Strategic Planning – Looking to the future, building a plan and implementing it.

The Board Boot Camp will be conveniently held in-person, as well as through on-line webinars and self-directed on-line learning. These sessions have been made possible through funding received by the Government of Ontario's Sport and Recreation Communities Fund. All sports groups in the City of Mississauga are encouraged to register a minimum of one delegate for the Board Governance Boot Camp.

Facilitators:

Kathleen Douglass has over 25 years of international experience working at both the field and leadership levels with formal education in the not-for-profit sector. As the Manager, Volunteer / Community Services with Workplace Safety and Prevention Services (WSPS), she provides leadership to a provincial team who deliver educational health and safety programmes to Ontarians. She holds an MBA, Strategic Leadership Certificate, Voluntary Sector and Arts Diploma and Fundamentals of Volunteer Management. She is currently President on the PAVR-O (Professional Administrators of Volunteer Resources-Ontario) Board of Directors and currently serves as a District Parliamentarian for Zonta International – a service organization which promotes the status of women in both local and global communities.

Eric Plato is a Certified Management Accountant who has worked in the not-for-profit sector for over 20 years. He was recently employed as the Director of Finance at Frontier College and previously was the Controller at the YMCA of Greater Toronto. Eric has also served as Treasurer for other not-for-profit organizations and has delivered numerous workshops on budgeting and financial management to the sector. Eric's workshops are focused on making financial management clear and understandable for the non-financial person.
