

Heather MacDonald

For over 30 years, Heather has held several Director positions; most recently, she championed several City projects and initiatives including the creation of the Affordable Housing Strategy - Second Units.

Heather has worked closely with Policy Planning over the last several years, and has developed her expertise in Policy Planning through her direct leadership on corporate projects and initiatives in this area.

