

Susan Burt

Susan has been a member of the City's management team for over 20 years holding several leadership positions across the Corporation. Since 2006, she has been a Director in various divisions including: Business Services, Planning, Development & Business Services; and Culture.

She has championed the creation and implementation of the City's Culture Master Plan which includes several strategic community initiatives. She is a strong visionary and has a passion for community development; she is an active member of the community.

She has partnered on several of the City's corporate strategic community initiatives such as Inspiration Lakeview, Downtown 21, and Inspiration Port Credit.

