Understanding of Commitment and Expectations of Applicant

As a Citizen Committee Applicant, I understand that Appointed Citizen Members are expected to attend meetings averaging two or three hours in length.

Most Committees, Local Boards and Authorities meet once per month.

I understand that some Committees meet during daytime hours. In addition, some Committees have Subcommittees and special events.

I have reviewed and understand the specific meeting details for the committee I am applying for and understand and agree to the requirements.

I agree to the Commitment, Expectations and Qualifications as stated above for the Committee I have chosen.

As specified in the Applicant Qualifications, I agree that;

- I am a Canadian Citizen;
- I am a Mississauga resident and/or business owner;
- I am a minimum 18 years of age
- I am not an employees of the City of Mississauga or Region of Peel
- I have not been convicted or a criminal offence for which a pardon has not been granted.
