Proposed City Initiated Amendments to Mississauga Zoning By-law 0225-2007

City Council passed Zoning By-law 0225-2007 on June 20, 2007.

The City is proposing a number of amendments to the Zoning By-law as part of ongoing work to ensure the By-law is kept up to date. The changes address items such as:

- Gross floor area
- Pervious material for parking areas
- Circular driveways

Amendments are proposed to modify Definitions, Parking and Loading Regulations, Residential and Employment provisions, and Zoning Maps.

Personal Information:

The personal information related to the consideration of any planning matter (including consideration of applications; comments and correspondence provided, whether written or verbal in relation to an application; comments and correspondence provided at, before or after a public or statutory meeting or a Committee or Council meeting) is collected under the authority of the Municipal Act, 2001, and the Planning Act. The City collects this information to enable it to make an informed decision on the relevant issue(s). Individuals who submit correspondence (as noted above) should be aware that any personal information in their communication will become part of the public record, unless the individual expressly requests the City to remove the personal information. Questions about the collection of this information may be directed to application.info@mississauga.ca or in writing to the Planning and Building Department at 300 City Centre Drive, Mississauga ON L5B 3C1.

Information about appeals:

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of City Council to the Ontario Municipal Board, or be added as a party to an appeal of the decision to the Board. If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Municipal Board unless, in the opinion of the Board, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

The proposed Official Plan amendment is exempt from approval by the Region of Peel. The decision of the Council is final if a notice of appeal is not received on or before the last day for filing a notice of appeal.
