Personal Information:

The Planning Act authorizes the City of Mississauga to collect personal information in your communication or presentation to City Council, its Committees or to staff in response to a Notice from the City about a planning matter. All materials and information submitted to the City on this matter, including personal information such as your name, address, email, or other contact information, will become part of the public record which is available to the public.

Information about appeals:

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of City Council to the Ontario Municipal Board, or be added as a party to an appeal of the decision to the Board. If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Municipal Board unless, in the opinion of the Board, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

The proposed Official Plan amendment is exempt from approval by the Region of Peel. The decision of the Council is final if a notice of appeal is not received on or before the last day for filing a notice of appeal.

Edward R. Sajecki, Commissioner
Planning and Building Department
