8. CORPORATE REPORTS

R-1 Report dated February 28, 2013, from Commissioner of Planning and Building re: Community Improvement Plan for the Main Street District of the Downtown Core Character Area.

Recommendation

1. That a by-law be enacted to designate the Main Street District of the Downtown Core Area as a Community Improvement Project Area.
2. That a Community Improvement Plan for the Main Street District of the Downtown Core Character Area, be prepared.
3. That a public meeting be held to consider the Community Improvement Plan for the Main Street District of the Downtown Core Character Area.

Resolution 0034-2013

Councillors Iannicca and Dale spoke in support of the Community Improvement Plan for the Main Street District of the downtown core and that tax levies are a possibility for residents, developers and businesses. It was further noted that the City needs to attract more office commercial space to the downtown area. Councillors Tovey, Mullin and Starr indicated that there should be a downtown levy and should not be paid for by property tax revenues. It was further noted that the report did not provide enough information on the financial impact on residents and requested that staff research other tools to finance the Plan. Janice Baker, City Manager and CAO indicated that staff are researching other tools to finance the Plan. Ed Sajecki, Commissioner of Planning and Building indicated that the report allows staff to move ahead with the process and progress reports will be brought forward at future meetings. He further indicated that the City of Toronto and the City of Brampton have utilized the Community Improvement Plan's.

9. COMMITTEE REPORTS
