Subject: RE: Paid Admission for Events - Mississauga Celebration Square

Further to your inquiry below, we have spoken to Natalie Hart representing Rotary and the Ribfest Event. Natalie has confirmed that both lower and upper squares are required for the event and further that both squares will be gated and secured with perimeter security fencing for the 2016 event, as done in the past. During the event, the fountain is shut down and transformed for vendors and tables. There has been some difficulty accessing the south doors of City Hall during the event in the past, due to conflict with security fencing. Natalie has agreed to work with staff to ensure that there is public access to City Hall and to resolve this concern.

Lastly, as per your telephone call, the City does not charge a rental fee for the square. In the case of Ribfest, the City charges a permit fee ($136.08 per day) and recovers out-of-pocket cost of services such as site co-ordination, technical services (sound and light), custodial, waste management and so on based on an hourly rate approved by Council, for the event.

Please let me know if further information is required.

Thank you,

Paul A. Mitcham, P.Eng., MBA
Commissioner, Community Services
