Overview

- Tour is in its 7th year and is recognized as one of the cool tours in southern Ontario
- 2013 Tour had 2,300 participants
- City is starting to endorse this event now; tour is giving Mississauga a reputation of having a bike-friendly infrastructure
- $15K received from Region of Peel, which was used to buy the food; $3K from the city?
- Expenses: promo, police, city staff, reg. cards and other mktg materials, shirts, markings
- Past promos: word-of-mouth, Mississauga News, Mississauga Guide, Kinect, road signs, community centres, Robers channel 10, bike shops, booth at the Toronto Bike Tour, bike clubs
- 120 km route will be added in 2014

Tour of Detroit

- Interracial event
- Food tent and beer at the end
- People cheering

Cambridge Ride

- Paid $30 for chance to ride and food at the end
- People cheering all along the routes
- Over 6000 participants

2a

Ideas

- Need to add to the experience if we are to increase participation
- People are looking for riding experiences which is why they are attending other tours throughout the summer. Good food and interesting routes means an exciting experience.
- Do we want to start charging for the event or keep it free (joy in a free event vs. paying a fee for the perceived value)? – Philosophy has always been free for everybody, no closing of the street.
- Solution- keep the event free but charge for food and make the experience better
- Star power to raise profile? – Canadian top cyclists, sponsored rides – Clara Hughes, Steve Bauer
- Better food experience needed
 - Charge food vendors to set up at the event
 - Optional for riders to buy food and beer
 - $15K from Region of Peel can be allocated to other initiatives (e.g. PR)
- Election year – receive a budget from councillors?
- BIAs – get them involved, put something up for the riders – Port Credit, Streetsville
- Booths for local communities/businesses
- Have routes that pass through Villages and combine routes to encourage the non-cycling population to get out and cheer.
- How to attract sponsors? – nutrition, therapists, yoga, bike stores, more cycling-related sponsors
 - Marquee sponsorship - $10K for the Tour to get the big tent, flag, bike parking
- Bike shops – align with a promo activity that they'd pay for
- Get non-cyclists involved
- No change to the dates

Responsibilities

- Greg: Bike stores and BIAs sponsorships
- Sylvan: Food experience, food vendors
- Gary: registration
- Jeff: Talk to mayor about beer tent, talk to JP about marquee sponsorship

It is anticipated that the final EA will be available for review in early 2014. For further information on the LWC Project, please contact Michael Charendoff at the details provided below.

The review period for the draft EA will begin on December 12, 2013 and end on January 31, 2014. Please submit any comments in writing to Michael Charendoff on or before the last day of this review period. All comments will be addressed in the Final EA.
