PRESENTATIONS/DEPUTATIONS

Hurontario-Main LRT

Matthew Williams, Project Leader provided an overview regarding the Hurontario-Main LRT project and noted that the LRT is currently in the design and environmental process and that the next public meeting would be held on May 14, 2013 in the Great Hall for public input. He outlined various cycling options to be considered for the LRT including cycling along the corridor through multi-use trails or bike lane connections, cycling on the system and cycling locations along LRT stops. He noted that certain areas along the LRT corridor cannot accommodate cycling lanes due to the width of the road.

Members of the Mississauga Cycling Advisory Committee (MCAC) expressed support of the proposed Hurontario-Main LRT project and were encouraged with the amount of cycling progress. Jeff Wachman, Chair expressed concern with no available funding for the LRT. Dorothy Tomiuk, Citizen Member inquired when the opening day would be anticipated for. Mr. Williams noted that they anticipate opening day would be in 6 - 7 years.
