One-time Streetsville mayor dies

J. Marshall Adamson, longtime councillor and former mayor of the town of Streetsville, died recently.

Adamson was first elected as a councillor to the council of the former town in 1951. He served until 1954 in that capacity.

In 1958-59, he was elected deputy reeve. He served as reeve from 1960 until he became mayor of Streetsville in 1963.

City council publicly extended its sympathies to the Adamson family at its meeting Monday.