

Peel Region

Former publisher heads B.C. daily

May 24-78 MN

Biog Bk

ELIO AGOSTINI

Elio A. Agostini, former publisher of The Mississauga News and one of the three founders of this newspaper, has been appointed the publisher and general manager of the Kamloops Daily Sentinel in Kamloops, B.C.

Agostini, who grew up in Mississauga and attended high school here, was publisher of The Mississauga News from 1971 until his departure in 1977 to assume the post of publisher and general manager of the Barrie Examiner. He was also a vice-president of Inland Publishing Co. Limited of which The Mississauga News and nine other community papers are divisions.

Very active in Mississauga, Agostini was a prime mover of the Mississauga City Board of Trade, the Mississauga Sports Foundation, and The Mississauga News Christmas Bureau Fund. He sat on the board of Cheshire House.