

More silverware for Angle . . . Edward Schreyer, the Governor General of Canada, presents Angela Bailey with her trophy after the Mississauga was selected the Sports Federation of Canada's junior female amateur of the year. The festivities were held at the Hotel Weston. Bailey, one of Canada's premier sprinters, won the award for her first place finishes in the 100 and 200-metre races at the Pacific Conference Games last year.

(Staff photo by Rob Beintema)