Funeral services were held Tuesday for Edward Hunter "Ted" Bowden, 70, who died Jan. 18 in St. Petersburg Beach, Fla.

Bowden was involved in a host of community and career associations during his many years in Mississauga.

He was president of Haney, Hunt and Bowden Ltd. and a past president of the Registered Insurance Brokers of Ontario. He was a past president (1980) of the Mississauga Real Estate Board and a past president of the Mississauga Industrial Association now known as the Mississauga Business Association.

Bowden served on several boards including the Royal College of Dental Surgeons; the Peel Board of Health; the Peel Children's Centre; and the Mississauga Library Board. He was a member of the Port Credit Rotary Club and a past director of the West End YMCA.

He is survived by his wife Marion (nee Butt); son, James Edward and his wife, Lydia, of Toronto; son Craig and his wife, Cathie, of Mississauga; and grandchildren Rob, John, and Carolyn.
