Gordon S. Shipp Award

Citizen of the Year to be honored Sunday

Peel Biog Bk

There are only a couple of days to buy tickets to the event honoring Mary Cline, Mississauga's Citizen of the Year for 1987.

The 67-year-old Canadian Cancer Society volunteer will receive recognition for her outstanding commitment and work in the community during a ceremony at the Mississauga Golf and Country Club this Sunday, April 12, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m.

Tickets are $25 each and can be purchased by calling The Mississauga News at 273-8111 or the Mississauga City Board of Trade at 273-5161. They can also be picked up at the News' offices at 3145 Wolfedale Rd. or at the board at 4 Robert Speck Pkwy. during regular business hours.

Cline will be presented with the eighth annual Gordon S. Shipp Memorial Award.

Marty Goodkey and Doug McKeown, two Mississauga firefighters, will be presented with certificates for their work with their association's charitable Benevolent Fund. Also being honored are Peel Police Staff Inspector Chris O'Toole and Sergeant Brian Cryderman, who spent months researching and writing a police manual on race and ethnic relations.
