Musician of year in for top honor

Mar. 27-85 MN

Tickets for the third annual Mississauga Musician of the Year Award banquet are now on sale.

Gary Clipperton of the Streetsville Musicorp and Justus is this year's winner and will be on hand for the presentation which takes place on Sunday, April 14, at the Credit Valley Golf and Country Club.

Oscar Peterson, a Mississauga resident and internationally renowned jazz pianist, has also been the recipient of the prestigious award.

Clipperton will also join the ranks of Mississauga Symphony conductor John Barnum, the 1984 winner of the top musician award.

Clipperton will be only the third recipient of the award.

The luncheon is open to everyone and tickets cost $20.

To obtain tickets, call the Mississauga Arts Council at 276-2787 or Gayle Hammond at 826-2274.
