

Caring woman honored

Mississauga Fay Cole has been named the winner of the first annual "Women Who Care Award," by the Christian Children's Fund of Canada (CCFC) and Women For the Project for Advancement of Childhood Education (Women For P.A.C.E.).

The award is to "honor a woman who has given of herself to help families, women and children in her community," said Maria Jordan of CCFC.

Peel Bio April 15/95
For the past 26 years, Cole has been involved in refugee settlement and integration, multicultural and cross-cultural sensitization and communication training to volunteer organizations and government agencies, and chairing and facilitating advisory, government and community boards.

Cole is the mother of six children and is the manager of the Community Life Skills Programs for the YWCA of Metropolitan Toronto.