High flying in Hamilton

Novice pairs challengers Sarah Echlin, of Mississauga, and Alexander Nacsa were in fine form in their opening routine Thursday at the Canadian Figure Skating Championships in Hamilton. When the final marks were in Friday, the pair finished out of the top 12, as did the pair of Luanne Girodat and Ken Mueller, who is also from Mississauga. The city's brightest light on the international skating scene, Karen Preston, defended her national title at the meet. Photos on page 18.
