

The Mississauga News*Tina IvanyPeel County Bioq.Jan. 26-77 MNappointed as editor

Douglas L. Regan, publisher of The Mississauga News has announced the appointment of Tina Ivany as editor of The Mississauga News.

The appointment becomes effective immediately.

Raised in Montreal, Mrs. Ivany is a political science graduate from McGill University. She taught English at the secondary school level in Sudbury, Montreal and Toronto before entering the field of journalism.

Joining the staff as a writer, she was subsequently appointed Community Editor, responsible for writing, editing and layout of the Community section.

In her new capacity, Mrs. Ivany will be responsible for all news content in The Mississauga News in addition to determining editorial policy with the publisher.

TINA IVANY

"I look forward to the challenge of serving the community as well as did my predecessor, Ron Lenyk," she said, "and to continuing the rapport this newspaper has established with its readers."