R.J. Addington, chairman of the board of trustees of the Fraser Institute, has announced the appointment of G. Alex Jupp, of Mississauga, as vice-chairman of the Fraser Institute.

Jupp, recently retired as vice-president of public affairs from Molson's, is also a trustee on the Peel Board of Education.

He is the former Mississauga North MP and is a member of the board of directors of the Canadian Commercial Corporation.

The Fraser Institute is a Vancouver-based economic research and education foundation concerned with directing public attention to the role of competitive markets and private property rights.
