

Sharing a hug with her heroine . . . Mississaugan Jennifer Lafayette, winner of the Mississauga Jaycees Canada Week Essay contest got the hug (and $100 worth of coin sets, a magazine subscription and a certificate) as her reward. The contest topic was Famous Canadians Past or Present, and Jennifer's famous Canadian (present) is (in case you haven't guessed yet) the Canadian National Ballet's star and former Erindale high school student Karen Kain.
