Almost 500 people showed up to pay tribute to local philanthropist/developer Ignat Kaneff at a fundraising dinner in his honor Wednesday night. Guest speakers Mayor Hazel McCallion, former premier David Peterson, University of Toronto president Rob Prichard, developer Hugh Heron, Parkdale/High Park MP Jesse Flis and emcee Lou Parsons itemized Kaneff's contributions to the city and country. Above, Kaneff's daughters Kristina and Anna Maria and wife Didi join in a standing ovation to the honoree. The dinner raised almost $65,000 for Community Living Mississauga, an organization to which Kaneff has donated almost $.5 million over the years.
