Don Laughton named
Citizen of the Year

A father of four and 20-year veteran of volunteer involvement has been named Mississauga's 1990 Citizen of the Year.

Donald T. Laughton will receive the Gordon S. Shipp Memorial Award at a luncheon in his honor Sunday, May 27 at the Hotel Novotel.

Laughton was chosen by a four-person selection committee last night. Committee members included Cheryl Easton, 1984 Citizen of the Year, Dennis Clarke, president of Clarke Communications, Lou Barbizan, of Deloitte Touche, and Mike Toth, editor of The Mississauga News.

Laughton's involvement in the community includes such organizations as the Canadian Autistic Society, Parkinson Foundation, Cancer Society, Community Living Mississauga, United Way and the Bethesda Concert Series. Tickets for the luncheon are $35. For information, please call 273-6151 or 273-8192.
