Olympic effort

Port Credit's Jocelyn Lovell, a former Olympic cycling medalist left paralyzed after a cycling accident, is preparing for his annual garage sale in support of spinal cord research. Last year's event raised $3,000, the entire amount earmarked for cure research, said Lovell. This year's sale is set for Saturday, May 3, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., at Lovell's home, 37 Wenonah Dr., in Port Credit. Among the items for sale is this print (shown) of jockey Ron Turcotte, also left paralyzed after an accident.
