

Room for Margaret — Outspoken former Ward 2 City of Mississauga councillor Margaret Marland's dedication to her constituents and to environmental causes were the hallmarks of her 28-year career, Mayor Hazel McCallion said yesterday as the City dedicated a room in the Clarkson Community Centre in honour of Marland. In all, Marland served 28 years as a school trustee, city councillor and Mississauga South MPP. MN November 6, 2013 Staff photo by John Stewart
