A gift to our twin city's mayor

Apr. 22-92 HN

Earlier this month, Mississauga artist Rona Marsden (right) presented Atoo Tsunooka (left), the Mayor of Kariya, Mississauga's twin city in Japan, with his portrait in appreciation of his kindness to her during her last visit and exhibition there in 1989. Kariya and Mississauga recently celebrated the 10th anniversary of their friendship. Marsden is currently living in Tokyo, and last October she participated in an exhibition of foreign artists at the Tokyo Metropolitan Museum of Art. Also pictured is Marsden's husband Philip, who also hails from Mississauga.
