

Top volunteer

Canadian Spectrum administrative co-ordinator Socorro Pangilinan was named one of two volunteers-of-the-year. She received her award Saturday night. Pangilinan and office manager Cristol Guy were honored for their dedication and commitment to Canadian Spectrum, a multi-ethnic group that offers multicultural television, radio and print media coverage. The pair "basically run the place," said Canadian Spectrum spokesperson Rick Torres.