Lou Parsons stays head of GO Transit

Lou Parsons has been re-appointed to another 3-year term as chairman of GO Transit.

Former chairman of Peel Region and currently a real estate broker in Mississauga, Parsons was a GO Transit founding board member and served as its vice-chairman for five years after the Crown agency was established in 1974.

As chairman, Parsons sits on a board that also includes the chairpersons of Metropolitan Toronto, and surrounding regions, including Peel.
