

World-renowned jazz pianist Oscar Peterson, a Mississauga resident, received the degree of Doctor of Letters from York University. Here he graciously addresses the convocation crowd. Before that, his flavorful music served as the background to the presentation of degrees to graduating students.

(Staff photo by Bill Dzigan)