Musician of the Year named Powers, Elizabeth

ELIZABETH POWERS

Elizabeth Powers, the musical director of the Mississauga Children's Choir for the past nine years, has been named 1992 Mississauga Musician of the Year.

The award is presented by the Mississauga Music Council. It was first awarded in 1983, to Oscar Peterson.

Powers is a program resources teacher in music with the Peel Board of Education, and is a member of the Ontario Music Educators' Association.

The award will be presented April 26 at a luncheon at the Mississauga Golf and Country Club.
