

Eileen Sonin dies

Reel Rayim Biog. Bk.

Nov. 16-77 MN

Eileen Sonin, 63, wife of CFRB broadcaster Ray Sonin, died Monday night in Riverdale Hospital of a stroke.

Mrs. Sonin, the former Eileen Gray, was born in London, Eng., where she was an actress and model.

She married Ray Sonin in 1938 and the couple emigrated to Canada in 1957.

Ray and Eileen Sonin, who lived in the Lorne Park area, were particularly helpful to The Mississauga News during our annual Christmas Bureau Fund telethons. Both appeared regularly and gave several hours of their valuable time to ask Mississauga cable viewers to help the less fortunate.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

EILEEN SONIN