

Fay Sproule to show her stuff

Prolific Mississauga artist Fay Sproule will be presenting her most recent works in a two-day exhibit Oct. 20 and 21.

The show, to be held at Spr-ingbank Visual Arts Centre on Mississauga Rd., will feature Sproule's watercolors of nature.

She has been featured in many art exhibitions up to this time, including a solo exhibit at the Gallery at Fairways and the Canadian Society of Painters in Watercolor western exhibit in June.

When Sproule is not painting, she serves as a director of the Mississauga Arts Council. She was also the founding chairman of Visual Arts Mississauga.

The Springbank show is open to the public Oct. 20 and 21, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
