A report from the Retail Council of Canada has given high praise to Square One Shopping Centre in Mississauga.

The 2019 Canadian Shopping Centre Study analyzed the top 30 shopping centres in Canada and ranked Square One seventh based on sales per square foot, with a total of $1,108. It's also ranked third among Ontario shopping centres, behind Yorkdale (first in the country at $1,964) and the CF Toronto Eaton Centre (third in Canada at $1,592).

Square One's total is also up 1.95 per cent from 2018. The mall was ranked fifth in the report that year.

"Square One's diversity of tenants is unmatched in Canada," the report said in its tenant/merchandise mix analysis of the mall. "It houses the value-priced Walmart as well as luxury retailers such as Holt Renfrew, and is filled with many first-in-class Canadian and international retailers."

The report went on to commend Square One on recent additions such as the 40,000 square-foot Food District, The Rec Room entertainment complex and a new Uniqlo store.
