Evening Programme

Our Future Mississauga Speaker Series
Tuesday October 16, 2007

Presenting this Evening:

Stephen Lewis & Glen Murray

Tonight's Speakers

Stephen Lewis

Formerly the Special Envoy to UN Secretary-General Kofi Annan, Stephen Lewis is co-Director of AIDS-Free World, a new international AIDS advocacy organization, based in the United States (www.aids-freeworld.org). Mr. Lewis is also a Professor in Global Health, Faculty of Social Sciences at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario. He is a Senior Advisor to the Mailman School of Public Health at Columbia University in New York.

Stephen Lewis' work with the United Nations spanned more than two decades. He was the UN Secretary-General's Special Envoy for HIV/AIDS in Africa from June 2001 until the end of 2006. From 1995 to 1999, Mr. Lewis was Deputy Executive Director of UNICEF at the organization's global headquarters in New York. From 1984 through 1988, Stephen Lewis was Canada's Ambassador to the United Nations.

Mr. Lewis is co-chair of the Leadership Programme Committee for the XVII International AIDS Conference, which will be held in Mexico City in August 2008. He also serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the International AIDS Vaccine Initiative and is the chair of the board of the Stephen Lewis Foundation in Canada (www.stephenlewisfoundation.org).

Glen Murray

As an urban strategist with AuthenticityCity Glen Murray is best known for his vision for building culturally dynamic urban centres.

Mr. Murray inspires Canadians to look at cities as the economic engines of the country that must be built on a foundation of culture, creativity and quality of place. His vision is anchored in practical and extensive municipal experience and from working with business and union leaders and in partnership with other levels of government.

Glen was the first Chair of the Big City Mayors Caucus in 2002 while he was Mayor of Winnipeg. In that capacity he led the campaign for new fiscal arrangements for municipalities - the New Deal for Cities. Glen currently Chairs the National Roundtable on the Environment and Economy.
