

When you were a child, did you walk to school?

Today, do the children around you walk to school?

