

The Honey Heist

Someone is taking honey from the hive! Travel around the grounds of the Bradley Museum and solve the clues to figure out who is taking the honey! Along the way, learn what a pollinator is and why bees are one of the best pollinators around.

To find out who is taking the honey from the hive, complete all the missions to find letters from the alphabet. Once you have all 7 letters unscramble them to find out who is behind the honey heist.

The Buzz about Bees

Bumble Bees are a native species to Ontario
To complete this mission, find the picture of the Yellow-banded Bumble Bee and write down what letter is beside it.

Answer: _____

Home Sweet Home

Many native bees make their homes in dead fallen logs or in the ground.
To complete this mission, search for the big log and find the letter hidden on it.

Answer: _____

Flower Power

Native pollinators are plants that have always grown here in Ontario that have pollen and nectar that bees and other pollinators like butterflies like to eat.
The garden around the Bradley House has been planted with many native pollinator plants.
To complete this mission walk, around the outside of the Bradley House and look for a bee on one of the window panes. Write down what letter is beside it.

Answer: _____

Happy Harvest

Native bees have adapted for the reproduction of native plants like blueberries, cranberries, squash and tomatoes.
To complete this mission, follow the path from the tomato to find your next letter.

Answer: _____

Honeycomb Hunt

Honeycombs are hexagon-shaped cells built by bees out of beeswax to store pollen, honey and eggs.
To complete this mission, count the number of hexagons on the barn. Your answer will give you the next letter.
Answer: _____

Not So Friendly

To complete this mission, look around the fire pit for all the natural and manmade threats to bees. Find the underlined letter to get your next letter.
Answer: _____

Bee a Helper!

There are lots of easy ways you can help bees.
To complete this mission, read about how you can help to find your next letter (hint: it's yellow!)
Answer: _____

Who stole the honey?

Unscramble the letters you found in the previous missions to find out who stole the honey.
Clue: This nocturnal animal loves to eat honey and will destroy a hive to get it!
Answer: _____

UNSCRAMBLED WORD: RACCOON

- 7. R
- 6. O
- 5. C
- 4. A
- 3. C
- 2. N
- 1. O

ANSWERS: